

What these broadcasters are afraid of is a little competition. The XM radio people are in the same position the cable companies were 30 years ago. We must allow all players a chance to compete without this we will be forced to endure mediocre broadcast material because there is no competition. Please deny the NAB's petition 04-160 and allow free competition, the American way.